Paving a road off the streets with education

*Average Exchange Rate for 2010 $1US = $12.50MXN

2010 was a transitional year for CODENI, due primarily to financial strains. National funding took a terrible plunge due to the economic crisis in Mexico and our lack of a professional grant writer on staff. Four of our nine fulltime staff members left CODENI for higher-paying positions in government institutions, causing pain and anxiety for the children and families who had developed affective relationships with them.

Despite these adversities, CODENI was still able to attend to the needs of more children than ever before and offer new projects including computer classes and workshops in resilience and addictions, as well as maintain all educational, recreational and social programs from 2009. The numbers speak for themselves:

Doing more with less

- 167 Average number of children in CODENI programs each month.
- 146 interviews and surveys with teachers during the year.
- 57 beneficiaries of computer classes
- 3 public exhibitions of CODENI kids' photos
- 10 fieldtrips & 8 soccer tournaments
- 328 sessions of Círculo CODENI (homework club, workshops & recreation)
- 86 educational scholarships & 2 work-training scholarships
- 448 food baskets for families with outstanding participation
- 85 legal documents processed / inscriptions for public health care
- 398 personal counseling sessions
- 70 students in elementary school
- 42 students in middle school
- 7 students in high school
- 1 student in college

We have regrouped and have a new dynamic staff members filled with great ideas and motivation to improve our abilities to reach more children than ever before. Through our integrated support programs, CODENI kids and their families are expanding their visions and dreams for a life outside of poverty and off the streets. They come to value education, strengthen family relationships and learn life skills to make this journey out of poverty possible.

With the Pan American Games to be hosted in Guadalajara this year, CODENI families are being pushed out of the city center and the public eye. They need our support now more than ever!

Thank you for your continued help to pave a road of education as a way off the streets!
